

Please include charitable, political parties and not-for-profit organizations in the "do not call" list. It is annoying to receive such calls regardless of the time of day. I do not want to be solicited for contributions or donations period, but particularly via the telephone. Thank you. Mary Beth Bubert